

Do not remove my access to local weather and traffic reports from satellite radio. This service does a better job of providing that information than any of my local radio or TV channels and should not be prohibited from competing on an even basis.